We are thrilled to host Heather Mulder Peterson as our featured teacher for the weekend. Heather designs under the name Anka's Treasures, a tribute to her grandmother who was a significant inspiration in her life. Heather publishes a wide variety of quilt books and patterns that often make use of pre-cut fabrics including jelly rolls, charm packs, and honey buns. You'll also recognize her fabrics designed for Henry Glass. Their cheerful, whimsical style are sure to catch your eye. We've ordered all her new fabric lines, so stop by the shop or our website at www.prairiepointjunction.com to check them out.

Heather and her husband, Joel, and dog, Daisy, live near Spicer, Minnesota in a lovely house along the lake that they have remodeled from practically the ground up.

Be sure to follow Heather on her blog at ankastreasures.wordpress.com. She frequently shares posts about new projects, her love for knitting, family fun, and tons of other inspiring ideas.

We look forward to a fabulous weekend of quilting, friendship, and food. Please let us know if you have any questions.

Sincerely, Julie Geiger and the Staff at Prairie Point Junction
